The course addresses the relationship between the city and the risk of disaster. Historical risks and climate change outline a horizon within which cities must be able to move and prepare for risk.

"Disaster planning and post-disaster rebuild" course led by Edward Blakely (Recovery manager Katrina hurricane) and Mattia Bertin