This guide was prepared in advance of the academic year to which it relates. All reasonable care has been taken to ensure that the contents are correct at the time of publishing. However, Iuav provides no guarantee that the information is accurate, complete or up-to-date, nor can it be held responsible for any errors or omissions.
Iuav was established in 1926 as one of the first Architecture Schools in Italy. Today about 4,500 students are enrolled in Iuav bachelor’s and master’s degree programmes. Iuav global reputation has always been related to its expertise in the fields of architecture, design, urban planning, fashion and theatre. In 2018 Iuav was officially recognised as public special status university by the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research. At Iuav your studies will be focused on learning by doing: the workshop format characterises learning and research activities by offering hands-on and innovative experiences under the direct supervision of high-profile professors and professionals.
Studying in Venice gives you the challenging opportunity to merge into a world of art, architecture, culture every single day.

This guide will briefly introduce you to some of the important aspects of university and city life: its intention is to support your throughout your stay to make this experience memorable.

We wish you to enjoy your stay and every success in your studies!

Enrolment procedures for bachelor's and master’s degree programmes

All new bachelor’s and master’s students are required to attend face-to-face enrolment at Campo della Lana 15 (Santa Croce 601).

To complete the enrolment procedure you need to bring the following documents:

- enrolment form, duly signed and dated (you can also ask the officer to print it out for you)
- receipt of payment of the first instalment of the enrolment fee
- high school or bachelor’s degree diploma with official translation into Italian
- Statement of Validity (Dichiarazione di Valore) by the Italian Embassy in the country that issued your high school degree or else Statement of Comparability issued by CIMEA centre regarding your high school or bachelor’s diploma
- valid ID document (both front and back, for EU students) or passport (both front and back)
- copy of your Italian fiscal code (codice fiscale)
- non-EU citizens: copy of your residence permit or the receipt of your application, student visa and all documents issued by the Italian embassy in your home-country (e.g. pre-registration form, certified picture...)

17
> Marco Polo students: Italian language certificate (B1 level based on the Common European Framework of Reference – CEFR).

If you are unable to attend the face-to-face appointment you can delegate a representative to hand in the documents for you. You shall provide this person with a written authorization and he/she will be asked to show his/her ID/passport.

Once you complete this procedure, you can download from your Student Web Service area (SPIN) all certificates related to your student career (e.g. certificate of enrolment).

For more information contact the Admission service iscrizioni@iuav.it

Tuition fees and financial aid
For 2019/2020 academic year, the maximum annual fee amount is euros 2,800, divided into 3 instalments.
The amount of the first instalment is the same for all students, while the second can vary according to income and/or merit criteria.
According to Italian law, in order to get an official assessment of your financial situation you need to apply for ISEE (Equivalent Economic Situation Indicator) declaration.

To pay your tuition fees you shall follow these steps:
1 enter your Student Web Service (SPIN)
2 click on "pagamenti" and choose the invoice to be paid you can pay online by clicking on “paga online” via credit card or homebanking (only for affiliated banks). You can also print out the payment notice by clicking on “avviso pagamento” and require the payment in person to one of the banks or shops affiliated to PagoPA system.

The deadlines to pay the three instalments are the following:
- 17 September 2019: 1st instalment
- 31 January 2020: 2nd instalment
- 30 April 2020: 3rd instalment

Delays in paying tuition fees result in penalties added to the amount of the following instalment:
- extra euros 52,00 for payments within 15 days after the deadline
- extra euros 104,00 for payments exceeding 15 days after the deadline

Prospective students are entitled to ask for such benefits as
- tuition fee waivers (total or partial)
- regional scholarships
- part-time job opportunities

International students are entitled to ask for
- Iuav flat fee
- Study@Iuav scholarships and tuition fee waivers
- MAECI Scholarships
- CRUI Scholarships for Refugees

Health insurance and health assistance
EU students, SEE State students (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway) and students from Switzerland European Health Insurance Card (EHIC), ensures the access to the public health care sector under the same conditions and at the same cost as people insured in Italy.
It is issued by the national health insurance provider of your home-country.
EHIC does not cover payments for private sector health care providers.

Students from countries with bilateral agreements
In some cases the health insurance provider of your home country can issue a form that ensures access to the Italian health service thanks to a set bilateral agreements.
Below you can find a list of countries and related certificates:
Australia – Medicare Card (valid for 6 months after the start of your stay in Italy)
Brazil – I/B 2 Certificate
Croatia – 111 Certificate
Bosnia Herzegovina, Macedonia, Serbia and Montenegro – OBR7 Certificate
Principality of Monaco – I/MC 8 Certificate
Republic of San Marino – I/SMAR 8 Certificate
These forms do not cover payments for private sector health care providers.
If you did not ask for the certificates mentioned above before your departure, see the section dedicated to non-EU students.
Non-EU students
In order to obtain a stay permit you need to provide evidence of health insurance coverage with:

1) a private insurance with the following features:
   > it is valid in Italy;
   > it covers all risks of illness;
   > it covers the entire period of your stay in Italy > it includes a description of the procedures needed to ask for a reimbursement > it is legally translated in Italian language if it is issued by an international provider

2) a voluntary registration to the National Health Service that ensures access to the public health care sector under the same conditions and at the same cost as people insured in Italy. This registration is valid for one calendar year (January – December) and entails the payment of a fee that may vary according to the type of your stay permit.

For more information you shall refer to the local department of the National Health Service.

Accommodation
The most popular options for accommodation are university residences and private accommodation (flat share, studio...).

If you are still looking for accommodation, here are some useful tips to help you out:

In order stay in a university residence, you usually need to book well in advance but they may have last-minute offers. The main university residences are:

Crociferi Residence
Ex Convento dei Crociferi, Campo dei Gesuiti, Cannaregio 4878 thisiscombo.com/location/venezia/
hello.venezia@thisiscombo.com

Santa Marta residence

www.camplusapartments.it/en/venezia.apartments@camplus.it

ESU Venezia
different locations in Venice and mainland www.esuvenezia.it [IT]
accommodation@esuvenezia.it
In order to have time to consider all available opportunities for a long-term accommodation, you can find a temporary option (hotel, hostels...) for a few days/weeks.

If you are looking for a room/flat to share you can:
> browse the accommodation notices on the notice boards at Tolentini and Santa Marta > consult dedicated websites for accommodation.

When looking for private accommodation, you shall start from defining the aspects that are most important for you (single/double room, washing machine in the house...).

Here is a list of topics you may want to consider:

1 location:
– if it is in Venice: is it close to the university buildings?
– if it is in Venice surroundings: can you easily reach Venice with bus/train from there?
– are there basic services nearby (supermarket, laundrette, café...)?

2 furniture and services
– is kitchen well-equipped?
– is there enough space for your belongings / is there a storage room?
– is there a washing machine?
– is there wi-fi?
– is there air conditioning?
3 budget
- can you afford it?
- are bills included?
- is wi-fi included?
- are there any extra expenses (linen, cooking utensils, furniture)?
- is there a deposit to pay?

4 safety
- is there a locker?
- can you lock your room?

5 flat/room mates
- are your flat/room mates students?

6 rental contract
- all arrangements shall be done in written forms as verbal agreements are not legally binding.
- the owner shall register the contract and provide you a copy (non-EU students need a registered copy of the contract when applying for the stay permit).
- take your time to read and understand all clauses before signing
Check the period of stay and termination conditions (if any).
- ask for a receipt for any payment you make in the frame of the contract
Banks and Post Offices

Payments and taxes can be paid in post offices and banks.

Here is a list of larger post offices, all of them with Sportello amico service (for stay permit):

> in Venice:
> Fondamenta del Gaffaro, 3510 (near Tolentini)
> Calle dello Spezier, 233/D (near Railways Station)
> San Polo 2022 (at San Polo square)
> San Marco 5016 (behind San Salvador church – near Rialto)

> in Mestre:
> Via Milano 20 (sideroad of Corso del Popolo)
> Viale San Marco 102/R (bus/tram stop San Marco)

Getting around

In Venice
What are the best ways to move around in a city without cars? While walking is the best option to explore the city there are a few options you shall consider for longer distances:
> within the city of Venice and the islands of the lagoon: waterbuses (vaporetti) > to the mainland: buses or trains

Waterbuses and buses are managed by ACTV through VeneziaUnica, a card to store transport tickets and passes, it is valid for 5 years and lets you travel at reduced rates on waterbuses and buses.
You can purchase it at the dedicated office in Piazzale Roma (open every day from 6.30 to 19.30)
You need to bring the following documents:
> a copy of ID or passport > fiscal code (codice fiscale)

Exploring the Veneto Region, Italy, Europe Venice is very well-connected to all main sites in the Veneto Region and with the rest of Italy and Europe with trains leaving from Venezia Santa Lucia train station, buses/coaches leaving from Piazzale Roma and through Marco Polo and Treviso airports.

Phone calls
To make a call from Italy you need to dial 00 + country code before the phone number, while if you want to call Italy from abroad you need to dial 0039 before the number.

If you have a mobile phone, you can buy an Italian SIM card for national and international calls.
SIM cards usually cost around euro 20, and can be purchased at mobile phone shops, post offices or supermarkets. To activate the SIM card you need your fiscal code, ID or passport and an italian address of reference.
Pre-paid recharges (ricarica telefonica) can be bought in any tobacconist’s, at the supermarket or online through the mobile operator website/app.

There is also a number of free apps that allows to make calls and video-calls through the internet.
In case you don’t have a mobile phone, you can purchase a pre-paid card at a tobacconist’s: there are different types according to the country you would like to call.

Eating habits

In Venice, as in the rest of Italy, there are three main meals: breakfast, lunch, dinner with a few snacks during the day. A very popular Venetian habit is the aperitivo before dinner: people gather in small taverns (bacari) and cafés to share an aperitif and a few appetizers (cicheti). This habit can get longer at weekends and when it completely replaces dinner is called apericena.

Venetian cuisine is mainly based on local specialties and fresh food. Ingredients from other parts of Italy sneak into Venetian dishes and cross-cultural fusion is also very popular.

Here is a non-comprehensive list of Venetian specialties:

Appetizers

Baccalà mantecato: cod fish served as a white cream on toasted bread
Sarde in saor: sardines, with onion-y mixture
Tramezzini: small sandwiches of white triangular bread with various fillings

First courses

Bigoi in salsa: spaghetti-like pasta with anchovies, onions, tomatoes and fennel seeds Risotto al nero di seppia: rice with squid ink
Second dishes
Frito misto: crunchy mix of fried shrimp, calamari rings and vegetables
Poenta e schie: small lagoon prawns served with corn cream
Desserts and pastry
Bussolai, zaeti, baicoli: biscuits
Frittelle: small fried dough balls made during the Carnival
Aperitif
Spritz: prosecco wine, bitter liqueur such as Aperol, Campari, Cynar, or Select, sparkling mineral water and a slice of orange or lemon depending on the liqueur, an olive.
Eating out is very common at weekends and, it is better to reserve a table if you are going to a restaurant.
Tips are not required but they can be a sign of deep appreciation for the meal or the service.
Besides supermarkets, you can also shopping for food specialties in bakeries, pastry shops.
Outdoor markets are a local alternative to find fresh food (e.g. Rialto market).

Weather
Venice is located on the north-eastern coast of Italy and it is washed by the Adriatic Sea that influence its weather all year round.
Below is an overview of the weather conditions in Venice during the year:
Spring: April, May, June
days are long, temperatures are moderate, not much rain

Summer: July, August, September hot and humid, storms that makes the temperature cooler for a few days

Autum: October, November, December daylight is shorter, pleasant temperatures, fog, acqua alta

Winter: January, February, March mild, temperature averaging above freezing, snow is rare, acqua alta

In autumn and winter, when astronomical tide and wind cause a large inflow of water in the lagoon the phenomenon of acqua alta (high tide) takes place.
It usually lasts about two hours and affects only some areas of the city. It generally causes little inconvenience and offers a peculiar perspective on the city.
People are alerted with acoustic signals and walkways are placed on the busiest streets: when the tide is higher than 120 cm rubber boots are necessary.

Venice City Council offers a free high tide alert system via short text messages.

The Tide Forecast Center created Hi!Tide (for Android and iOs), a free app to monitor the tide in Venice and check which areas are flooded.
