2. GRADUATION for Double Degree students

2.1 Master Thesis

For Iuav students, the final thesis must be written and defended in English or Italian language. In the latter case, it is necessary for Iuav students to write an abstract in English.

For Tongji students, the final thesis must be written in English and Chinese.

All students will produce a final thesis in English that will be co-supervised by faculty members from both universities

2.2 Graduation

The graduation procedures at IUAV for the double degree programme can be organized in a two-step modality.

As for Iuav students:

Firstly, DD students graduate in the Partner University, which provides Iuav with the proper documents confirming it as soon as possible.

Secondly, DD students defend their thesis at Iuav. The thesis defense at Iuav can occur virtually, in a simplified and faster modality. Accordingly, Iuav academic regulations, permit, in fact, simplified procedures for international mobility programmes.

Iuav finalizes the graduation procedure in the first available graduation session, provided that:

- all necessary documents have been received on due time
- the credit recognition procedures related to the mobility period
- the students' careers are regularly completed

As for TU students:

Firstly, DD students graduate at Home University, which provides Iuav with the proper documents confirming it as soon as possible.
