

RECAP OF THE MATERIALS TO BE DELIVERED

01. Full paper

We kindly ask you to use the provided template (DHTLconference_template.docx) and to follow the Oxford editorial guidelines (DHTL_Referencing_guide.pdf) in order to properly submit your contribution as an editable word file (.doc or .docx or .odt/ no .pdf).

The .doc file must be named as "Surname_FirstName_DHTLconference.doc"

As for the length of the paper, you can choose among the following options:

- Option 1: max. 17.000 characters, including spaces, endnotes and bibliography. In this case you can enclose max. 2 images.
- Option 2: 15000 characters, including spaces, endnotes and bibliography. In this case you can enclose max. 3 images.

We remind you that the full paper must be delivered in English, preferably translated by a professional translator, since fluent writing is a mandatory requirement for the contribution to be published.

Moreover, the Scientific Committee, which will review the full paper, reserves the right to ask the authors any possible change necessary to ensure the publication quality and uniformity.

02. Images

Insert a maximum of 2 (paper length 17.000 characters) or 3 (paper length 15.000 characters) images with their own captions in the adjustable blue boxes as a preview.

Please consider that this isn't a layout, but it's important to properly order the images as you wish them to be published in the book.

At the same time we kindly ask you to send us, as email attached files (via WeTransfer if necessary), the high-resolution images with base 20 cm at 300 DPI.

The images must be named as "Surname_FirstName_Figure 1.jpg", "Surname_FirstName_Figure 2.jpg", etc. according to the captions used in the paper's template.

03. Release form to publish the images

The form (DHTL_Images_release_form_EN.docx or DHTL_Liberatoria_immagini_IT.docx) must be filled in each part and signed by the first author of the paper, who will be responsible for any possible issue related to the images copyright.

The Release form must be named as "Surname_FirstName_Release.jpg".

A copy of the Identity card of the first author has also to be attached to the Release form.
