

REDUCING BOUNDARIES

Understanding exclusion through security defensive systems in wealthy urban areas.
Porto Alegre, Brussels, Veneto region

11.10.2017

Badoer

Aula Consiglio

h 10

The research leading to the results has received funding from the People Programme (Marie Curie Actions) of the European Union's Seventh Framework Program FP7/2007-2013/ under REA grant Agreement n. 612063

11.10.2017
Palazzo Badoer
Aula Consiglio

Focusing on the Brazilian case study of Porto Alegre and its metropolitan region, this scientific meeting presents the results of the comparative research Reducing Boundaries (2014-2017) led by Università Iuav di Venezia (Italy) in partnership with and Latitude - Platform for urban research and design (Belgium) and the Faculty of Law and Criminology of La Salle University (Unilasalle, Brazil).

PART I Introduction: origins, methodology, research results

h 10
Emanuela Bonini Lessing (Iuav)
Fabio Vanin (Latitude)
Daniel Achutti (La Salle University)

Legal aspects of urban security in Brazil and in Italy

Micol Roversi Monaco (Iuav)
Daniel Achutti/Fiammetta Bonfigli (La Salle University)

Public spaces

Giulia Cantaluppi (Iuav)

Security devices

Marcos Catalan/Sara Dotto (La Salle University/Iuav)
Giovanni Fiamminghi (Iuav)

LUNCH

h 13

PART II Geolocalization of socio-economic and criminal data

h 14.30
Giacomo Zonta (Iuav)

Perception and communication of risk and insecurity

Maurizio Pioletti (Iuav)
Andrea Facchetti (Iuav)

Wealthy residential areas

Marta de Marchi (Latitude)
Fabio Vanin (Latitude)

Priscila Lena Farias (Universidade de São Paulo, Brasile), Angelika Burtscher, (Studio Lupo & Burtscher, Italia), Eduardo Georjão (Universidade Federal Rio Grande do Sul, Brasile) will join the discussion.