

DOMESTIC PERFORMANCE AGENCY

Practicing Everyday Choreographies

Presentation by Athena Kokoronis

Domestic Performance Agency (DPA) is an artist brand & studio conceived by artist and designer Athena Kokoronis (based in NYC). DPA investigates life cycles of materials, creating interdisciplinary work and design that intermingles with food, cloth, natural dye, hospitality, motherhood, dance, and collaboration. Her work has been presented though NYC for over a decade, and shown at LRC. She is currently an artist in residence at the Emily Harvey Foundation.
