

FUXICO

A community-centred project

Mariah Majolo is a Brazilian independent researcher and designer based in Venice. Her work focuses on social design, textile craft heritage, and gender studies within the context of cultural mediation. Currently, with the support of the Honorary Consulate of Brazil in Milan and the Italian-Brazilian Cultural Association Amazonas, she is leading a craft therapy project called FuxiCO that involves more than 20 women of various nationalities.

Discussant Clizia Moradei

In the frame of the New Media and Fashion
Communities Studio / Caterina Pecchioli

9.3.2026
Magazzino 6
aula 2.2
ore 10.30

